

FANTAIL VA SERVICES

Taking care of the boring stuff so you can do the important stuff!

September How did this happen. One month in business for us here at Fantail. We have met so many lovely people on our discovery calls, learning new skills and just enjoying the creativity of setting up our business. September is looking quite exciting too, getting down to the nitty gritty of helping entrepreneurs get their businesses organised and running smoothly. We also have our first monthly get stuff done event (details at the bottom of the page). Whatever September holds for you and your business I hope you find moments of fun and if you're struggling to find time we know a good VA!
